Gene L. Wilson
Casualty of World War II

Gene L. Wilson, son of Carlton and Irene R. Wilson, was born in Ogden, Utah January 21, 1918. His family moved to Lehi when he was a small boy.

He married Elva Wilson of Randolph. They had one little son, Gene C. Wilson, whom his father never saw.

Gene enlisted in the Army June 3, 1942, and left for overseas, landing in Africa, April 1942, and going from there to Italy where he was killed in action December 15, 1943.